Dr. Velma Bagby is a renowned entrepreneur, 15-time award-winning author, certified dating and relationship coach, ordained minister, 38-year business professional, and inspiring speaker. Her primary focus is to empower single women to approach dating with intention. Having been happily married for 49 years, Dr. Velma embodies the qualities of a Titus 2 woman. She delights in sharing her profound insights on love and marriage through writing, coaching, and public speaking. In her work, she cleverly employs fish characters from her books, each representing different behaviors that correspond to incompatible partners.

Dr. Velma is a woman of virtue, integrity, compassion, wisdom, but most importantly, she's a child of God. I'm honored to have this amazing woman beside me on this wonderful platform that pours passionately, powerfully, and purposefully into women.
